

WESTERLY

Thursday evening, at the Mystic car, Superintendent W. Lester O'Brien of the Shore Line Electric Railway Company called together in the lobby the motormen and conductors, who have met and had a get-together meeting. Superintendent O'Brien's talk to the men was on Co-operation, Courtesy and Efficiency While on Duty. His experience in railroad work enables him to work with the men, and in showing them to be courteous to the traveling public, and at all times to live up to the thoughtfulness of his teaching. Mr. O'Brien is most successful with the men, and has brought city ideas to Westerly, having himself been connected with New York railroads prior to coming here. He does not ask or expect his men to do only what he would and does do himself. About 25 employees of the road assembled to hear from their helmsman and leader, the superintendent. A smoke followed and the evening was one of pleasure and these social chats and get-together meetings are looked forward to with pleasure. The Shore Line road has shown a marked improvement in every way and the men employed by Mr. O'Brien are clean, respectable, courteous, and trustworthy and well liked by the patrons on all the lines.

This (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock a get-together meeting will be held at the same place for the night shift of employees. This will mean that about 40 men will have enjoyed the same opportunity of attending the meetings.

Stonington Grand, No. 188, held a meeting in the parlors of the Road District church Wednesday evening. A social hour followed and an old fashioned spelling match was held. Ice cream and cake were served.

If you will cut out this advertisement and mail it to The Plant-Cadden Company, Norwich, Conn., together with your address, you will receive a Book of Old Fashioned Songs free.—adv.

Just across the river on the Pawcatuck side, D. Everett Hoxie is running on the republican ticket for first selectman, in place of Charles Champlin, who will not be a candidate again. Mr. Hoxie has not been before the limelight before, but is well known as a business man of strong principles, as is also Lawrence Purcell of Pawcatuck, on the democratic ticket. The contest seems to be between these two men and lively interest is shown on both sides.

It took just ten minutes for Judge Oliver H. Williams of the Third district court here Thursday morning to dispose of a dozen defendants' cases before the court. Wednesday evening there were arrests made of men who were charged with breaking the law by walking on the roadbed of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. While going to and from work the Westerly men used the tracks, also crossed the railroad bridge which spans the Pawcatuck river. They were given a hearing on complaints served out by Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown. The tracks have been posted. Each was fined $5 and costs which amounted to $7.50 each, as they had pleaded guilty. Those before the court were John D. McMahon, A. M. Eison, MacLellan Straford, Andrew Catalano, Thomas Whalen, John Blason, David Carter, Patrick Devine, Andrew Sullivan and Walter Perry. Thursday morning an officer was stationed at the bridge and two more men were brought before the court and tried. They were George P. Lamphere and John Grinnell. They also were given the same fine and costs. The total amount was $92.50.

Two hundred members and friends enjoyed a social of Elm Tree camp, No. 874, Royal Neighbors of America, Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served. The camp entertained among out of town guests Supreme Marshal and State Supervising Deputy Mary E. Brewer and her husband, C. E. Brewer, of Hartford, District Deputy Mary E. Ferguson, of Providence, District Deputy Mrs. Davenport of Clara Wood Camp, New London, and Past Oracle Mrs. Bourge, of Royway camp, New London.

Wednesday evening a Ford touring car owned by August Larson and driven by his son, Heywood, and a Dodge sedan driven by Michael A. Pristito came together on the post road. The former was headed toward Westerly, shot across the highway and pitched off an embankment about four feet high, owing to wheels being smashed in the crash. Larson and a friend, a Mitchell boy, escaped without injury. Officer Fred B. Mitchell arrived soon and investigated the matter. The cars were taken to a local garage.

Westerly is to hear ex-Governor R. Livingston Hoadly, a candidate for senator from Rhode Island and Richard Aldrich, the republican nominee for congressman from the Second district, Monday evening. They will speak at a rally at the town hall at 7:30 o'clock, arranged by the Bookman Ex-Service Men's Association. Dancing will follow.

Thirty young ladies of Pawcatuck Congregational church enjoyed a "bus ride to Glasgow, Conn." Tuesday evening. They left Westerly at 7 p. m. for Glasgow, where Miss Margaret Langworthy entertained them royally at her home. Refreshments were served and dancing was on the evening's program. The party returned home about midnight.

The criminal session of the superior court for Washington county will not finish the docket in West Kingston this week and will hold session there next week. Just when court will meet in Westerly has not been determined.

There was no jury trial in the superior court for Washington county at Kingston Wednesday. A settlement in the case of the Federal Feltling company vs. Charles J. Butler, alias an action of trover, a jury was impaneled Thursday morning and trial of the case of Edwin H. Ennis vs. N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. Co. was begun.

Monday evening at the meeting of the board of trade, Charles J. Butler, the chairman of the Westerly highway commission will talk on contemplated improvements for Westerly's highways.

Ten permits to operate automobiles were revoked, three suspended and several other cases were disposed of Wednesday by the state board of public roads. The license of William Riddell of Westerly was revoked.

STONINGTON

There has been a large demand for sea food here this week and the fishermen have done well, although poor luck has prevailed. Lobstermen report a poor season, also, but the craft made out to bring into port this week good loads of scallops the first of the season's offerings here. The quota took 20 gallons which went to New York markets and are quoted as selling at $4.50 per gallon. Pounders were brought in here and sold in town by Captains Wood, Chesbro and Clark. A good supply of bluefish has also been secured.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Fletcher, who for the past two years have had charge of the farm, for Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Dennison Galloway, will leave here Oct. 1 for Westerly where they will reside on the W. A. Wilcox farm, on Hinckley Hill. Mr. Fletcher will continue in the farming business for himself.

Noank fishermen reported Thursday a big catch of cod. Schooner Capt. Grover Eldridge, formerly of Stonington, brought in 45 sugar barrels of the fish. They were shipped to New York.

Qua Tiebeau is in Boston.

The death of Robert A. Allen of Colquhoun occurred at Mrs. Emmeline Allen's home Thursday evening. He was born Nov. 23, 1869, in Holyoke, Mass., the son of Saffel B. and Catherine Merrill Allen and has spent many summers here. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth E. Allen, two daughters, Mrs. J. Popp of Highland, N. Y., and Miss Catherine M. Allen of New York, and a sister, Mrs. Edward Fuller of Westfield, Mass.

Dr. Herman Atwood will leave town Oct. 1 and will take a course in chiropractic at the National College of Chicago.

Buy Your Butter by Name

THE housewife who knows the importance of butter on her table, knows also, that she should buy that butter by name. This confidence in a particular brand explains the general preference for

Meadow Gold Butter

This name for twenty-three years has stood for uniformly high quality for the year round.

Meadow Gold was the first butter ever sold in a sealed sanitary package. Its goodness and flavor are protected from the creamery to the consumer.

Use Meadow Gold butter and you'll buy it regularly. Sold ONLY in the original yellow carton at all dealers.

If your dealer does not handle Meadow Gold write us. We will see that you are supplied.
